

Using Data to Promote Progressive Change

Saturday, 14 March, 2026
St Luke's 90 Central Street London EC1V 9AJ

Please arrive promptly by 09:30 for registration & coffee

Session 1

09:40 Privacy protection: How can federated analyses help?

Andrei Morgan

10:10 The mismeasure of human capital

Eddie Playfair

10:25 Loss functions at the ballot box: How to vote on a continuous scale, and other Statistical generalisations of binary voting systems

Cedric Ginestet

10:40 Casting light on lighting

Paul Marchant

10:55 Walk the walk: Tools for implementing research integrity

Diana Kornbrot

11:10 Break

Session 2

11:30 Radical Statistics AGM

11:55 Workshop

12:40 Lunch

Session 3

13:30 Workshop

14:20 Enhancing safety in custody: Early warning and decision support for suicide and overdose risk

John Christiansen

14:50 Break

Session 4

15:10 Inequality revisited: Economic inequality, democratic governance and their relation to life expectancy

Jon Anson

15:25 The slow degeneration of UK strike statistics and their post-pandemic dysfunction

Dave Lyddon

15:40 Looking back to go forward: constructing local census time series 1971 to 2021/2

Humphrey Southall

16:10 Building the case for social homes in Manchester

Nigel de Noronha

16:40 Wrap-up / closing comments